ISI Photo Competition 2021 'Take a Cell-fie'

The annual European "Day of Immunology" is just around the corner on April 29, 2021!

In order to mark this important day in European Immunology, the Irish Society for Immunology are hosting a photo competition.

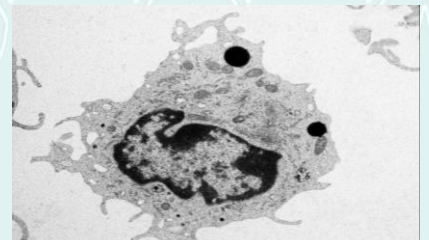

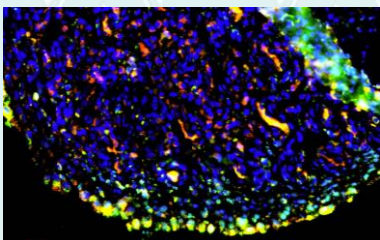

We will award 5 prizes of €100 to for the best immunology images submitted. Winning photos will be published on our new and improved website.

Open to all with an interest in immunology!

Entry Submissions: please e-mail your entries to irishimmunology@gmail.com

Please see Terms and Conditions overleaf

Closing date: Monday, 5th April 2021

Technical specifications for submitted photos

Images should be high quality, preferably landscape 1920 x 1080, file size up to 3MB in JPEG or TIFF formats. The picture can be a unique image or a composition of images. The theme of the images is immunology. A brief description of the image (50 words) must be included.

The photo submitted must be an original creation - no copyrighted images may be used as standalone pictures or as part of a composition. All images must be owned by the participant. By submitting an entry to the contest, the participant is certifying and warranting that the submitted photo(s) does not violate the rights of a third party or any copyright. ISI is not responsible for intellectual property violations that might have resulted through the submissions of photos or publication in printed or online media distributed by the ISI.

Judging and notification of selected photographers

Closing date for submission is at 23.59 on April 5th (Dublin time). Photos complying with the format specifications will be evaluated by a jury appointed by the ISI President. The jury's decision is final; the jury may also decide not to select any photos to appear in the website and ISI media campaigns if entries are judged of insufficient quality. Attempt by a participant to influence the result or subvert the photo competition will lead to immediate disqualification.

The authors of the selected photos to be included in the new ISI website and media/marketing campaigns will be notified via e-mail by April 15th 2021. If an entrant is unable to be contacted after reasonable attempts have been made to do so, ISI reserves the right to offer the prize to the next best entry.

The winners will be announced on April 29th, 2021 as part of the events held by ISI to celebrate the International Day of Immunology. Winners cannot disclose the results of the contests or publicize the winning images in social media or any printed communications until after the official announcement by ISI.

Rights and ownership

By submitting their photos to ISI Photo Competition, the participants agree to grant ISI the right to use the photo free of charge in any manner and media, including without limitation, the right to publish, adapt, distribute, copy, display or translate in printed or electronic media even if they are not the winning entries.

ISI will acknowledge full name of the participant in the website. Participants may be asked to take part in publicity activities related to the contest and promotion of the event.
